WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina.

The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best tie yet introduced. NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

AT Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.

Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Good's

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 51 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles, still speak of Goods at the right prices, why bear in mind that they are fresh and new opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cts a per yard; went you look at them at 10 cents? and can't you afford to buy them at 12½.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and if you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

These the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed along
The listning winds received the song.

COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Can't find them? Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them, $3, 5, 7, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and prevent your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and unbrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

IMPEACHMENT.

The Republican papers appear indignant at the fast approaching impeachment of Governor Holden and Chief Justice Pearson. They say little about the impeachment of the Governor, but rely upon the long services and ability of the Chief Justice to save him from the ignominy which must follow impeachment. If great learning and public services could save from impeachment, Chief Justice Bacon had never been impeached. The history of Judicial corruption in North Carolina began with the establishment of the Republican party in the State. It is to be hoped it may die out with that party, and that neither shall flourish again.

The call for the impeachment of Judge Pearson in the counties of Alamance and Caswell will not be disregarded by the Legislature. These are the people who suffered by his base abandonment of a plain and oft repeated duty in granting relief to illegally arrested citizens, and they have the sympathies of the whole State. The cause of one county is the cause of all.

Without the co-operation of Judge Pearson, Holden and Kirk would soon have finished their lawless career. We sometimes reason ourself into the belief that there was a tacit understanding between the Judge and the Governor, that the prisoners of the latter should not be released by habeas corpus. In one of the letters picked up in the Court House at Graham, addressed to Kirk by the Governor, he says "treat the messengers of the Chief Justice with marked courtesy, for he (the Chief Justice) is substantially sustaining me." And so he was and so he did, and every man with eyes could see it. Governor Holden declared in other letters, and editorials in the Standard, that Judge Pearson was substantially sustaining him. Indeed it seems apparent that the Judge was the creature of the Governor throughout.

After Judge Brooks signified his intention of granting relief to the prisoners, some of whom had been hung and ironed like dogs and felons, Gov. Holden writes the following letter to Judge Pearson:

"EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Raleigh, Aug. 15, 1870.

To the Hon. R. M. Pearson,
Chief Justice Supreme Court of N. C.:

DEAR SIR: In my answer to the notices served upon me by the Marshal of the Supreme Court, in the matter of Adolphus G. Moore and others, ex parte, I stated to your Honor that at that time the public interest forbade me to permit Col. George W. Kirk to bring before your Honor the said parties; at the same time I assured your Honor that as soon as the safety of the State should justify it, I would cheerfully restore the civil power and cause the said parties to be brought before you together with the cause of their capture and detention.

That time has arrived, and I have ordered Col. George W. Kirk to obey the writ of habeas corpus issued by your Honor.—As the number of prisoners and witnesses is considerable, I would suggest to your Honor that it would be more convenient to make return to the writ, at the Capitol in Raleigh. Col. Kirk is prepared to make such return, as soon as your Honor shall arrive in Raleigh.

With great respect,
Your ob't servant,
W. W. HOLDEN.

Who made the Governor the keeper of the Judge and of the sacred privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, to be dealt out as the want and requirements of the Republican party should demand? After Bergen has hung up Patton, Rogers and Murry, "I," says the Governor, "will cheerfully restore the civil power and cause the said parties to be brought before you together with the cause of their capture and detention." The time has arrived and I have ordered Col. Kirk to obey the writ of habeas corpus issued by your Honor." That a Governor should address such a lettter to a Judge makes good cause for the impeachment of both.

In that remarkable old work, "The Mirror of Justices," there is a chapter on the abuses of the common law, in which it is said, "it is abuse that Justices and other officers who kill people by false judgments, be destroyed as other murderers, which King Alfred caused to be done, when he ordered forty four justices in one year to be hanged as murderers, for their false judgments." What a lucky thing for Judge Pearson that King Holden, instead of old King Alfred reigns!

Scroggs and Jeffreys, the subservient tools of a corrupt Court, fill a black page in the annals of their country. Judge Pearson has made a black page in the annals of his country, for which he should be punished, impeached, deposed.

PARSON SINCLAIR.

We have not heard much of this divine, Radical rogue, since he advised our friend, Phil. Sasser, not to shoot him, lest he should be hung for it, and that he, Sinclair, didn't want to take advantage of him; stating in explanation, that should he kill Phil., the Governor would pardon him, but if Phil. should kill him, the Governor would hang him, certain.

The Governor, it seems, recently ordered his chief detective, Fisher, Adjutant General of the State, Senator elect, &c., &c., to go to Lumberton for the protection of the pious parson. The detective called on the parson about 8 o'clock at night, but found the doors barricaded, and could not gain admittance, the parson taking the friendly detective for a Ku Klux!

Fisher afterward met the son of the old man, and sent him word that he wanted to see him, but the old fellow wouldn't stir out of his den. Next day Fisher hunted him up and found him at his office.

The parson complained to Fisher that he was terribly intimidated—(the "fighting parson" intimidated!) in the discharge of the duties as Magistrate.

Mr. M., a citizen who had accompanied detective Fisher to see the parson, here observed, "you were eleven days trying John Taylor, and no one interferred with you." Mr. M. told him further, that detective Sanders had declared that he, Sinclair, and one Holeway, a negro, had sent word to the robbers to be on the look-out, for that Sanders, the detective, was after them!

If for nothing else, Holden ought to be impeached for taking into his confidence, and politically sleeping with, such men as Sinclair, Sloan, Littlefield, Windy Billy, Judge Watts, et id omne genus, whom the Governor has placed in positions to plunder the State and oppress the people.

GENERAL CLINGMAN.

If all parties cannot harmonize on this old gentleman for Senator, then we ask upon whom can they agree? He can commend himself to the old Whigs for he was one of them; he can present his claims with confidence to the old Democrats, for he was one of them, also. He is acceptable to the carpet baggers, for he is on terms with Littlefield. He is acceptable to the native scalawag, for he made an address to the people which was published in the Standard office and was circulated by Jo, "Dad" and Pilgrim Ashley.

We have pledged ourselves to strict neutrality in the Senatorial and all other elections, to be made by the Legislature.—This little mention of an old rotator will hardly be considered as a violation of that neutrality.

COL. L. W. HUMPHREY OF GOLDSBORO.

We mentioned a few days ago, that we had noticed the claims of every gentleman in the State, whose names had been coupled by their friends, with the U. S. Senatorship. A correspondent calls our attention to the fact that we had not alluded to the name of Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Wayne. If he be correct, it was an unintentional omission on our part. Col. Humphrey's name was urged some time since by a correspondent of the Old North State, and favorably noticed by the editor of that paper, as a very proper selection for U. S. Senator, and we have no hesitation in endorsing Col. Humphrey's eminent qualifications for any position his fellow citizens might call him to fill.

A DUTY NEGLECTED.—While Gov. Holden was indefatigable in appointing spies and detectives to sneak about among the people, listening at doors and windows and peeping through chinks and crannies, in order to catch some careless expression that would subject them to the discipline of Kirk and Bergen, he entirely neglected to set a watch over the rogues and plunderers who were stealing the people's money and robbing the State of her bonds. What the Governor failed to do in this regard, we hope the Legislature will attend to at once—that is, appoint a detective force in the shape of a Committee, to ferret out the mismanagement of affairs in the State and see how far the Governor is implicated in it.

DECLINED.

We are informed that a prominent black Republican has urged Hon. Lewis Hanes to become the Republican candidate for the United States Senate. Mr. Hanes declined and said, from motives of delicacy he would not make his appearance in Raleigh until after the Senatorial election.

GOES FOR THE MONEY.—Mr. Lamond has returned from Granville, to rest a day or two from his laborious speech making in Granville, for Jos. He will return in a day or two, to renew his efforts at Brassfields. We learn that "Jeems" says he is neither Democrat nor Republican, but that he is "working for the money," and then he slaps his hand on his pocket.

ALL O. K.—The Democrats and Conservatives of Nash have effected a perfect organization and are vigorously working to secure the success of our candidate next Saturday.

"Keep it before the people" that Jo W. Holden is the candidate of the Leagues and Railroad Ring.

STANDARDIANA.

JOSEPH'S MIGHTY INFLUENCE.—The Standard continues to harp on its own assertion, that Mr. Manning has no influence at Washington. It is likely he would have as much as his opponent, who has not influence enough in his own district to get up a crowd of half a hundred to speak to at any of his appointments. We don't see what can give Joe such an influence at Washington, where his daddy is such an eyesore to his party that he couldn't procure his confirmation to the mission of San Salvador,

"He must have optics sharp I ween,
To see what is not to be seen."

The Standard says our notice of the seizure of still and fixtures, by Messrs. Upchurch and Banks of the revenue service, is "calculated to make other men violate the law." We did not intend, and cannot now see, any such tendency in our notice; but suppose it should have that tendency, what difference would it make, when we have such hawk-eyed officers to ferret out these offenders.

We do not think that anything short of a "coroner's inquest" could have discovered a tendency in our notice "to make other men violate the law."

Hon. James H. Harris, arrived in this city last night, after an absence of six weeks in the North.—Standard of Friday.

Yes, and as we are credibly informed, drew $100 per month from the fund of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institute, as Assistant Superintendent of the colored department, all the time he was gone, although the schools were not in operation during the time.

The Standard on "information" from "a responsible source" has gotten another auriferous whisper from across the water, to the effect that N. W. Woodfin, Esq., had raked out of Littlefield, a million and a half of Florida bonds, $150,000 in cash, and $160,000 in railroad iron. Whew!

A DEMOCRAT has a communication in the Standard of the 18th, in which the writer reels and zigzags about, like a man would walking over our uneven pavements on a dark night. If we understand the writer, who says he is an old line Democrat, and intends, if he lives, to die one, he is using whatever influence he may have, if any, to create heartburnings, if possible between the old Whigs and old Democrats, who are now opposing the Radical party. He says, being an old line Democrat, he means to vote for Joe Holden. We don't see the point; but as a set off, the writer of this is an old line Democrat, and he won't vote for Joe Holden. But, this writer is an old line Democrat, and means to vote for Mr. Phillips, too. We shall take a hunt for the logic in this, as soon as we get leisure. The point here is lost again.

In the meantime we assure "Democrat" that his labor of love will not produce the effect he intends.

CORRESPONDENCE.

GRAHAM, N. C., Nov. 18, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner:

DEAR SIR:—Within the last two months I have noticed three several communications in the Raleigh SENTINEL signed Alamance, purporting to have been written at Graham, in each one of which, personal reflections have been cast upon myself. As a matter of justice I think I have a right to know the real name of the author, and you will much oblige me by giving me the name. An early answer is requested.

Yours respectfully,
W. A. ALBRIGHT.

SENTINEL OFFICE,
Raleigh, Nov. 19, 1870.

W. A. Albright, Esq.:

SIR—You had the manners to enclose a postage stamp to pay postage on my reply to yours of the 18th. I will hand the stamp to your worthy representative, Mr. White, to be returned to you.

I do not know what "reflections" were cast upon you by your neighbors. I know you were "hand and glove" with Holden, Kirk, Bergen, Douglas and your cousin, red-eye Bill Albright, while Bergen was hanging your neighbors, like dogs, to trees in the woods. You need not want the names of men who condemn your hypocritical course, for every decent man in your county will do it.

Yours, with proper consideration,
JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

ADDITIONAL REWARD.—We are requested to announce that the authorities of this county will pay an additional reward for the capture of the persons named in the Governor's proclamation equal to that offered by him, to-wit: $500 for H. B. Lowery, and $300 each for the others. This swells the sum total of rewards offered for the capture of these desperadoes to the nice little sum of $3,400.—Robesonian.

Two of the prisoners who escaped from the jail in Lumberton on the 4th inst., Jim McKinnon and Martin Locklear, have been re-captured and returned to their old quarters in jail.

Shall Nature be Sustained?

To give debilitating medicines to the weak is about as bad as it would be to try to help a man to his feet by kicking him when he was down.

That sort of practice is going out of fashion It has filled so many graveyards that people no longer believe in it.

If those who are not strong by nature expect to avoid the attacks of disease, they must endeavor to acquire the vigor necessary to resist it.

How is this to be done? Common sense suggests by the use of invigorating medicine.

The great object is to STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM WITHOUT EXCITING IT.

This object is accomplished by the judicious use of the most potent and genial of all vegetable tonics and alteratives, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Many valuable properties are combined in this preparation. It improves the appetite and renders digestion easy and perfect.

It gives steadiness to the nerves, induces a healthy, natural flow of bile; prevents constipation without unduly purging the bowels; gently stimulates the circulation, and by promoting a vigorous condition of the physical system, promotes, also, that cheerfulness which is the truest indication of a well-balanced condition of all the animal powers.

Summer leaves both the body and the mind more or less exhausted. Now is the time to recruit them, and thus forestall the malarious fevers and other complaints which prostrates so many thousands every Fall.

A FAVORABLE NOTORIETY.—The good reputation and extended use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" for Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases has caused the Troches to be extensively imitated. Obtain only the genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches," and do not be influenced by those who make more profit by selling worthless imitations.

LADIES' MEETING.—We are requested to announce a meeting of all the ladies who desire to assist in making arrangements in relation to the Lee Memorial Ceremonies, at Peace Institute on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

We understand that the object of this meeting is to make provision for suitable floral decorations, &c.

A DESIRABLE MEDICINE.—We call attention to the advertisement of Dr. Young's Bronchial Syrup in to day's SENTINEL. Dr. Young has shown us certificates from ladies and gentlemen who have used this medicince, and who speak of it in the highest terms. With many of those who have certified to its efficacy in their own cases, we are well acquainted, and we have the utmost confidence in what they say of it. In one case, to our own knowledge, a lady relative of ours has received great benefit from its use.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.—There was a large crowd at the Court House on Saturday night, to ratify the nomination of Hon. John Manning as candidate for Congress. Short addresses were delivered by Messrs. London of Chatham, R. K. Speed of the 1st Senatorial district, and Sparrow, member of the House from Beaufort, after which Judge Merrimon was called on and spoke at considerable length on the political history, aims and tendency of the Republican party. We shall notice the proceedings of the meeting more fully to-morrow.

The Conservative members of the House of Representatives, are requested to meet at the Hall of the Representatives, this morning at nine o'clock.

A BEAR was captured near Newbern, last week, weighing over 300 pounds.

LEE-MEMORIAL OBSERVANCE.

The Committee of Arrangements, designated at the public meeting of our citizens held some time since, have adopted the following programme for the Memorial Observance, to be celebrated on Wednesday next, the 23rd inst., in honor of Gen. ROBERT EDWARD LEE, the Patriot Hero. It is designed that the commemoration shall be worthy of the memory of the illustrious man, and it is earnestly desired that it may be participated in by a grateful people, with all the solemnities and emphasis suitable to the occasion. Let it be a fit expression of the sentiments, the admiration and the sorrow of the Capitol of the State!

We desire, particularly, to call attention to the proposition to raise funds for a monument to the departed Chieftain, and to express the hope that the suggestion of the Committee will be heartily and generally seconded.

THE PROCESSION

Will form at 11 o'clock, in front of the South gate of the Capitol, and will march thence to the grounds of the Peace Institute, where the exercises will take place.—The following will be the order of Procession:

Music.
Chief Marshal and Assistants.
Soldiers of the late C. S. Army.
Clergy.
Eulogist, attended by Committee of Arrangements.
State Officials, and Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, headed by their Presiding Officers.
City Officials.
Masonic Fraternity.
Independent Order of Odd Fellows.
Friends of Temperance.
City Fire Companies.
Children of the various Sunday Schools.
Citizens.

All who join in the procession are requested to wear a black crape rosette, with white ribbon or some other appropriate badge.

The Bells of the city will be tolled during the Memorial services.

It is earnestly desired that all business be suspended during the exercises, and that such emblems of mourning, as may be deemed appropriate by the occupants, be displayed from the stores and dwellings.

The following will be the order of exercises:

1. Dirge by the Band.
2. Hymn by the children of the Sunday Schools.
3. Prayer by Rev. Drury Lacy, Chaplain.
4. Reading of a Poem written for the occasion by Mrs. Fanny Downing.
5. Eulogy, by Hon. Z. B. VANCE.
6. Dirge by the Band.
7. Singing.
8. Benediction.

GEN. WM. R. COX, Chief Marshal
MAJ. B. C. MANLY,
MAJ. R. S. TUCKER,
CAPT. W. HAL HARRISON, } Assistants.
S. G. RYAN,
WM. STRONACH.

If the weather should unfortunately prove too inclement for a Procession, the exercises will come off at Tucker Hall, at which place the people are requested to assemble at 12 o'clock.

The ladies of the Memorial Association are requested to take charge of the decoration of the Speaker's stand.

It is contemplated to afford the people an opportunity of contributing to the erection of a memorial monument to GEN. LEE, in the Confederate Cemetery. To that end, boxes will be provided on the occasion, and it is earnestly hoped that this appeal will be liberally responded to.

We are requested to say that Mr. R. W. Best is candidate for the position of Principal Clerk to the Senate, which meets today.

PERSONAL.—Prof. W. J. Palmer, former Principal of the Deaf and Dumb Institute of this city arrived by Saturday evening's train, and became the guest of Jno. G. Williams, Esq. He is looking quite well, as if the people of Canada had been very good to him since he has been with them.

MASONIC NOTICE.—There will be a regular meeting of Hiram Lodge No. 40, at their Lodge Room, this, Monday evening, at the usual hour. An election of officers for the ensuing year will take place, therefore every member is requested to attend.

On Monday last Mr. Churchill Bartlett of Warren county, was almost instantly killed by a tree falling on him, which he was cutting down.

ARRIVAL OF MEMBERS.—A considerable number of members of the Legislature arrived in the city on Saturday and yesterday. We have not ascertained the number, but think there will be a quorum in each house to-day.

TO BE RESUMED.—Mr. W. J. Yates requests the Charlotte Observer to state that he will resume the publication of the Democrat as soon as arrangements can be made to do so. In the meantime he desires that every subscriber to the Democrat should send him his name and Post office; his books being burned, he has no other way of re-organizing his subscription lists.

MAIL FAILURE.—We got no Northern mail on Friday night, on account of a misconnection of the mail trains at Weldon, and failed also on Saturday morning, of our Northern mail matter which comes by way of Greensboro', on account of failure of the Danville Road to connect with the N. C. Train. These failures are particularly annoying, especially when they come so thick. We have had some seven or eight of them in the last month, which is really becoming rather monotonous.

P. S. We got our regular mail Saturday night, but Friday's mail, North of Weldon, didn't come; it is still wandering some where.

DEATH OF A MEMBER.—We regret to learn, as we do from a correspondent from Rocky Mount, that Mr. Woodard, member of the House of Representatives from Nash county, died of typhoid fever, in that county, on Thursday night. Mr. Woodard was a man of great uprightness of character, practical sense, and usefulness in his county. He was elected to the House of Representatives from Nash at the last August elections, hence his death will involve the necessity of another election in that county to fill the vacancy.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Principal Doorkeeper.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE Col. P. J. ROGERSON, as a candidate for the position of PRINCIPAL DOORKEEPER, of the Senate branch of the Legislature; he is strongly recommended for the office.

EXAMPLE, BETTER THAN PRECEPT, AND TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

THE subscriber has been interrogated within the last few days by a very considerable number of persons in reference to the fact as to whether our lately departed fellow citizen, the Rev. Wm. E. Pell was or was not insured in the Ætna Company. And now my reply is given in this public way for the information of all those who may feel a true and personal interest in the temporal comfort and prosperity of those he so nobly and faithfully represented while living. He was one among many of the first who took policies in this Company in 1866. His example in Church and State are worthy of the highest Commendation and emulation by every one. He sought first his personal salvation, and then used all legitimate means to provide for those he loved best. He insured in the Ætna Company for $10,000 about the time that Gov. Worth took $5,000, B. Andrews $10,000, J. A. Moore $15,000, A. Kline 5,000, and many others who might be named. "He who provides not for his own and especially for those of his own house will find what he is compared to in Holy writ, a word to the wise is sufficient, and in conclusion we say be advised while in health to follow the example of our friend. And if the Ætna Company after having paid already $382,000 to the widows and orphans of the State is not approved of and worthy of your confidence, we will say insure in the next best you can find.

W. H. CROW, Gen'l Agt.

The Equitable
LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES
120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

8. The sum of $5,000,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the stated and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.

16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."

18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportionable the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase its amount account of its business, as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $15,000,000 greater than any other company.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwar'd of 10.000 POLICIES,
and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.
I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED
"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."
THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allsigh Co., Newbern, with its improvements.
Price $175.00.
This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PICK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.
One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.
It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.
I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.
Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet - Size Bale 4½ feet 22x28x36in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.
The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.
